Cosmic Shift: Russian Contemporary Art Writing is a groundbreaking collection of essays that examines the major trends, themes, and figures that have shaped the Russian art scene in recent decades. Featuring contributions from leading scholars, curators, and artists, this volume provides a comprehensive overview of the most important developments in Russian contemporary art.

The essays in Cosmic Shift are organized into four thematic sections:

- The Avant-Garde Legacy
- The Post-Soviet Condition
- The Global Turn
- New Directions

The first section examines the enduring influence of the Russian avant-garde on contemporary artists. Essays in this section discuss the work of such artists as Ilya Kabakov, Boris Groys, and AES+F, who have all drawn inspiration from the avant-garde's emphasis on experimentation and innovation.

The second section explores the impact of the post-Soviet era on Russian art. Essays in this section examine the work of artists who have grappled with the social, political, and economic changes that have taken place in Russia since the fall of communism. These artists include Oleg Kulik, Anatoly Osmolovsky, and Elena Kovyлина.

The third section looks at the increasing globalization of the Russian art world. Essays in this section discuss the work of Russian artists who have exhibited their work internationally and who have been influenced by global trends in contemporary art. These artists include Marina Abramović, Irina Nakhova, and Timur Novikov.

The fourth section examines new directions in Russian contemporary art. Essays in this section discuss the work of artists who are pushing the boundaries of contemporary art practice. These artists include Dmitry Gutov, Gosha Ostretsov, and Polina Kanis.

Cosmic Shift: Russian Contemporary Art Writing is an essential resource for anyone interested in the dynamic and ever-evolving landscape of Russian contemporary art. With its comprehensive overview of the major trends, themes, and figures that have shaped the Russian art scene in recent decades, this volume is a valuable addition to the literature on contemporary art.
